SDLP South Down MLA PJ Bradley has attended a memorial service in St Patrick's Cathedral in New York to commemorate the 10th anniversary of murdered solicitor Rosemary Nelson.

He said: “I was honoured to represent the SDLP at a memorial service on the eve of St Patrick's Day to mark the 10th anniversary of the murder of Rosemary Nelson.

“The ceremony was performed by Monsignor Thomas Leonard and was very well attended by the Irish community in America.

“With a public inquiry ongoing it is important to remember her family and friends at this time.

“They have endured 10 years of pain and procrastination waiting for truth and justice.

“Their quest for answers is ongoing and their need for closure is long overdue.”
